Bunbury Drive Trails

Bunbury is located less that two hours' drive from Western Australia's capital city, making it the ideal weekend or short stay getaway from Perth. The Geographe region in which Bunbury sits is home to one of the south west's budding wine regions, a thriving arts scene and host of environments perfect for outdoor adventure.

Choose a theme for your next weekend getaway or short stay in the Geographe region, and find out more by reading one of the Bunbury drive trails below.

Aboriginal Dreaming, Intrepid Pioneers and Contemporary Art

Discover the culture, history and art of Bunbury and the surrounding areas of Donnybrook, Collie and Dardanup.

Gourmet food and wine highlights of the Geographe Wine Region

Discovery one of WA's newest wine regions in the Geographe Region. Pick fruit straight from the orchard, enjoy a relaxed winery lunch or sample gourmet produce in a beautiful farmland setting.

Action, Adventure and The Great Outdoors

When you need a little adventure and action in your life why not consider a drive trail and head for the scenic Geographe Region, encompassing Bunbury, Collie, Donnybrook and the Ferguson Valley?